SOME STUDIES IN PASTORAL MINISTRY

1

THE PASTOR'S PERSONAL LIFE AND DUTIES

by Weldon E. Viertel

This guide seeks to lead pastors to an understanding of the divine mission of the Church, a determination of the vital qualifications of the leader of the Church, a knowledge of ministries the pastor must perform, and an acquaintance of techniques he may employ in leading the Church to accomplish its mission. (This book does not have learning activities.)

PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELLING

by James E. Giles

This book attempts to help young ministers to be alert to opportunities that come in pastoral care and counselling through their daily routine. The book contains case studies to help the student learn through role playing by simulating situations in which pastors often find themselves.
