NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES

EARLY CHURCH GROWTH: A STUDY OF THE BOOK OF ACTS

by Weldon E. Viertel

This study guide seeks to introduce Bible students to the Book of Acts and to lead them to an understanding of the struggle, victory, and development of the early Church. Attention is focused on the evangelistic outreach and doctrinal issues of the young Church which had been commissioned to carry the gospel to the ends of the earth.

LIVING BY FAITH: A STUDY OF ROMANS AND GALATIANS

by Weldon E. Viertel

No greater book has ever been written than Paul's Epistle to the Romans. Whenever the Church has gone astray, the diligent study and fervent preaching of Romans have guided it back to the grace of God. Because of similar doctrinal content, Galatians and Romans are interpreted together. This guide is not intended to replace the Bible or to be studied without reading the parallel Scripture references. It can be used effectively without supplementary textbooks.

THE TESTING OF FAITH: A STUDY OF HEBREWS, JAMES, 1 AND 2 PETER, AND JUDE

by Weldon E. Viertel

The theme which ties together these five epistles (often called Jewish Christian writings) is the suffering of the recipients. The purpose of each author was to give encouragement to Christians whose faith was being tested. Although physical persecution is not a present-day threat for Christians in most countries, a subtle form of spiritual and mental persecution continues through the critical remarks of unbelievers. In order to encourage persecuted Christians, these books focus attention on future hope.

THE GOSPEL AND EPISTLES OF JOHN

by Weldon E. Viertel

The Fourth Gospel was written to lead to faith, and the Johannine Epistles were written to give instruction in living the Christian life. A study of these books should prepare a person to live the abundant life. The Epistles are studied in conjunction with the Gospel because of their similarity in content.

THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB

by Chester C. and Bonnie Ball O'Brien

A study of the Book of Revelation by these authors summarily explains in simple English the actual meaning of the text. It reiterates God's love and power, Christ's redemptive victory, and the Spirit's present work.
